Dear Haris

Request for review of FOISA regarding FOI 2022-494 A&E Triage time

I have been passed your request for review of FOI 2022-494 due to our initial response suggesting this information was already in the public domain. I would like to apologise that it has been necessary for you to escalate this request.

Please find enclosed a response to the FOI as detailed. I hope you now have all the information you were seeking.

If after receiving this letter you are not happy about the way it has been handled, you can ask the Scottish Information Commissioner to consider it further. You must put your appeal in writing, giving your name, address, details of your original request and an explanation of why you are unhappy with the outcome of the review. An appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner would need to be within six months of receiving this letter. Following the issue of a decision by the Commissioner, you have a right to appeal the decision to the Court of Session. Appeals can only, however, be made on a point of law. Contact details for the Scottish Information Commissioner are as follows:

Scottish Information Commissioner
Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road
St Andrews, Fife, KY16 9DS

Tel: 01334 464610 / Email: enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info

Yours sincerely
